Speaker: Captain Tammie Jo Shults

Pilot. American Hero. Nerves of Steel.

From an early age, Tammie Jo Shults had a keen interest in flying, but faced numerous obstacles on her path to becoming a military pilot. Her lifelong trait of perseverance enabled her to become one of the first female fighter pilots to serve in the United States Navy. Following a successful Navy career, she became a pilot for Southwest Airlines. Shults is best known as the heroic captain who safely landed Southwest Flight 1380 after the aircraft suffered engine failure in April 2018.

"Tammie Jo reminds us that life's challenges and the choices we make equip us to face anything with confidence and we don't face them alone." - Max Lucado, Pastor and Best-selling Author
